

Title: Who Is Yeshu? (4 min)

Hello, dear friend. This may be the most important question you'll ever hear: Who is Yeshu?

Your answer to this question shapes not only your view of life—but also your eternal destiny.

One day, as He walked with His disciples, Jesus asked, “Who do people say I am?”

Some said, “He’s a prophet—maybe John the Baptist, who was killed by King Herod, the well-known prophet of that time.” Others said, “Maybe Elijah,” the most powerful prophet in Jewish history. Even today, people give many different answers:

Some say He was a great saint. Others say He was a wise guru, or simply the founder of Christianity. But then Jesus asked them directly: “Who do you say I am?”

Peter replied, “You are the Messiah—the Son of the Living God.”

And Jesus said, “Blessed are you... for this was revealed to you by my Father in heaven.”

In other words, to truly know who Yeshu is—we need God’s help. Yeshu is not just a teacher. He is the Messiah—the promised Savior. He is the Son of God, sent to rescue us from the judgment of sin.

Yeshu Changed History

Even if you’ve never read the Bible, you’ve felt His impact.

One of the biggest holidays in the world—Christmas—celebrates His birth.

Why? Because His life changed the world.

Even the calendar is centered around His coming:

B.C. (Before Christ) and A.D., meaning “In the year of our Lord.”

You may not think about it—but even your birth year is counted from the time Yeshu came.

Prophecies Fulfilled by Yeshu

Do you know anyone whose life was foretold in detail before they were born?

I don’t know anyone —except Yeshu. His coming was not random.

His life was described in ancient scriptures centuries earlier.

Just a few examples:

- His virgin birth and birthplace were foretold in Isaiah and Micah.
- His suffering and death were described in Isaiah 53.
- Even His resurrection was predicted in Psalms 16.

These fulfilled prophecies are powerful evidence:

Yeshu is the promised one.

His Words and Miracles

Now let’s think about what He said and did. Yeshu spoke like no other.

His teachings were full of love, power, and authority. He forgave sins. He healed the sick. He walked on water. He raised the dead. These were not just miracles—they were signs of His divine identity.

Yeshu made bold claims:

- “I am the light of the world.”
- “I am the resurrection and the life.”
- “I am the way, the truth, and the life.”
- And He said, “Before Abraham was born, I AM.”

Abraham is the earliest ancestor of the Jewish and Middle Eastern people.

Each of these shows us: Yeshu didn't just point to the truth—He is the truth. He is eternal.

His Death and Resurrection

Yeshu came to save us—not just from our problems, but from sin and death itself.

He died as a sacrifice for us, paying the price for our sins. Then He rose again—defeating death—so that we could live forever with Him. So—Who Is Yeshu to You?

You've heard who He is:

The Messiah. The Son of God. The Savior of the world.

But the most important question is:

Is He your Savior?

Would you open your heart today and ask to know Him more?

Here is a simple prayer you can say:

“Creator God, have mercy on me.

Open my eyes to know who Yeshu really is.

Help me to believe in Him.

In Yeshu's, Amen.”

If this message touched your heart, I invite you to explore more.

Yeshu is not far from you—He is calling your name. Thank you for listening.
